DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 04, 2005 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. This office acknowledges of the following items from the Applicant:
Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) filed on September 06, 2005.
The references cited on the PTO -1449 form have been considered.

Drawings

3. The drawings (Figures 21A to 21C of Species III) are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show "the inner wall surface adjacent to a bottom surface of the depression section being curved or inclined" and as described in the specification ([0285]) and . Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

4. The drawings (Figures 21A to 21C of Species III) are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, "the inner wall surface adjacent to a bottom surface of the depression section being curved or inclined " must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim 95. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 96, 97 and 112 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sugaya et al. (US Patent No. 6,538,210).

Regarding claim 96, Sugaya discloses a semiconductor device a substrate 905c (fig. 9A) including a depression section having an inner wall surface, the inner surface adjacent to a bottom surface of the depression section being curved or inclined with respect to the bottom surface of the depression section;;

Art Unit: 2818

a semiconductor chip 908c (fig. 9A) mounted in the depression section of the substrate with a surface of the semiconductor chip on which an electrode (not shown) is formed facing upward;

a first conductive layer 902bb2 (fig. 9A) formed over the substrate and the semiconductor chip so that the first conductive layer is electrically connected with the electrode of the semiconductor chip;

an insulating layer 905b (fig. 9A), at least a part of the insulating layer being disposed on the first conductive layer; and a second conductive layer bb1 (fig. 9A), at least a part of the second conductive layer being disposed on the insulating layer over the first conductive layer.

See column 24, lines 32+ and column 25, lines 1 – 57.

Regarding claim 97, Sugaya discloses a resin layer 906c (fig. 9A) formed in the depression section in which the semiconductor chip is mounted, wherein the first conductive layer is formed to pass over the resin layer (column 24, lines 32 – 60).

Regarding claim 112, Sugaya discloses the semiconductor device discussed above is used in the electronic equipment (fig. 15; column 1, lines 15 – 15 and column 29, lines 1+)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 105 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sugaya et al. (US Patent No. 6,538,210) in view of Jeong et al. (US Patent No. 6,861,737).

Regarding claim 105, Sugaya discloses the claimed invention of claim 96 but fails to teach a circuit board on which the semiconductor device is mounted.

However, Jeong discloses semiconductor device 30 (figs. 2 and 3) using metal patterns 32 of the circuit board 31 (figs. 2 and 3) as an external connection means (column 3, lines 48 – 57).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to provide the device of Sugaya with the circuit board of Jeong, in order to increase the operational speed of the semiconductor chip using the circuit board as an external connection means (column 2, lines 1 – 5).
